THE PIASA BIRD

Chautauqua, Illinois

How We Got Our Name

The Legend of the Piasa Bird

Long years ago, when the country was inhabited by a very large and prosperous tribe of Indians known as the Illini (or Illinois), at a time when this tribe was at the height of its prosperity, they were terrified at the appearance on the inaccessible bluffs where it made its home, of an immense and hideous animal, half bird, half beast, which, from the fact of its having wings, the natives called "Piasa," or "Man-destroying Bird." This monster is described as being of gigantic size; so strong that it could carry off a buffalo in its talons. In appearance it was most frightful: Its wings as black as the raven's, and clothed with thunder; its legs, four in number, had talons like those of an eagle; its body was like that of a dragon, and covered with glistening scales; its enormous tail ended like that of a fish. In its flight it made a most terrific appearance, inspiring those who saw it with terror and awe.

While the people gazed awe-struck this bird swooped down and carried off brave after brave to its den in the rocks. The appetite of this monster seemed to grow more ravenous the more it tasted of human blood.

The tribe was rapidly diminishing in numbers from the ravages of this monster. Ouatoga, chief of the once mighty Illini, retired to a secret place with his priests to implore the aid of the Great Spirit. While engaged in fasting and mummary of his religion, it was revealed to him the manner in which the monster might be destroyed. The mode was this: First, a noble victim was to be selected from among the bravest warriors, who by religious rites was to be sanctified for the sacrifice. Secondly, twenty-five warriors of the bravest, with their stoutest bows and sharpest arrows, were to conceal themselves near the place of sacrifice. The victim was to be led forth and alone take his position upon an exposed point of rock, where the destroyer would be most likely to discover and seize upon him. At the moment of the monster's descent, the concealed warriors were to let fly their arrows, with the assurance that the Piasa would be slain.

On the day appointed, the braves retired to their secret place as directed by the vision, near where the victim was to stand. The name of the victim had been kept secret up to the hour of sacrifice. Judge, then, the astonishment, when dressed in his proudest robes, Ouatoga appeared himself the victim. The tears and shrieks of the women, and the expostulations of the chiefs, availed nothing; he was bent on his solemn promise. With a proud step he walked forth and took his place on the appointed spot, while the people looked on with bated breath. Soon the monster, cleaving the air with his horrid wings, was seen hovering over the spot, and after wheeling about for a few moments, high over the head of the doomed man, nearing at each gyration, he suddenly came thundering down to seize his prey. Just as his awful talons grazed the plumes of the chieftan's head, twenty-five bow-strings twanged, and twenty-five sharp arrows sped as were never bolts shot before, piercing the monster's breast. An appalling death-shriek, such as mortals never heard before, resounded on the cliffs and the common foe lay writhing in death. The Piasa was dead and Ouatoga, the beloved chief, stood unharmed. Unbounded rejoicing succeeded the event. Ouatoga was borne in triumph to the council house. In commemoration of the event, a picture of the Piasa was painted on the rocks that lay beneath the spot where it was killed, where it remained for centuries and was plain to be seen, until a few years ago the bluff was quarried away for the purpose of making lime.

—Prof. McAdams, in "The Defector"

“The object of the Assembly is to maintain a summer resort for literary, scientific and religious instruction”

—From a printed circular issued July 13, 1885, announcing the first Camp Meeting of the Piasa Bluffs Assembly starting August 25, 1885 and continuing one week.

A Greeting from the President

We who have been enjoying Chautauqua for a good many years sometimes fail to appreciate the beautiful things that are at our very doors - - they have become so commonplace to us.

Here at Chautauqua we can arise on a bright sun-shiny morning and hear the songs of the birds as they start their morning serenade - - we can see the sun rise and set and the myriad color of the flowers and trees - not to mention the majestic Mississippi River flowing serenely past our shores. Unnoticed sensations of pleasure that we habitually take for granted. WE REALLY SHOULD "COUNT OUR BLESSINGS".

Chautauqua was incorporated "to conduct an assembly for religious, educational and scientific purposes and operate in connection therewith a Summer Resort."

Our Religious Committee has succeeded in obtaining many outstanding Ministers for our Church Services and the Entertainment Committee has arranged a delightful program for your pleasure. A most enjoyable Season is anticipated.

The Officers and Directors are indebted to the employees for their co-operation and to the Cottagers for their continued confidence.

William C. Hilmer, President

FRED A. DuHADWAY

The 1958 Chautauqua season will lack the presence of Fred A. DuHadway, a long-time member of the Board of Directors and Counsel of the Association. Mr. DuHadway died April 29, 1958. But this season and the seasons to come will feel the influence of Mr. DuHadway's work as so many past seasons have, because much of the good he did for Chautauqua was of a permanent nature. His wise counsel, his genial manner and his gracious, gentlemanly ways caused him to be one of the most respected members of the Board. He served as its secretary for several terms and was president in 1952-53. The good he did for Chautauqua and its people was inspired by his character and his genuine love for New Piasa Chautauqua.

All of us are richer for Fred DuHadway's having been with us and a part of Chautauqua.

The Chautauqua Grounds are owned and operated by the New Piasa Chautauqua Association and every person entering or remaining on the grounds must have an Admission Ticket purchased from the Association. For your convenience carry Season Tickets with you. Also register Season Tickets at Administration Office within one week of purchase.

If you expect guests notify Gatekeeper in advance and make arrangement for admission charges either by paying for guests' admission or authorizing Gatekeeper to collect admission charges from your guests. Failure to make advance arrangements can cause embarrassment as Gatekeeper is not required to admit strangers to grounds simply because they announce they have come to visit a Chautauqua resident.

Persons arriving at Chautauqua by river must contact Manager of Grounds at Administration Building to arrange for tickets. No person without ticket permitted to remain on grounds.

Rules and Regulations Governing Chautauqua

All persons on the grounds of this Corporation shall OBSERVE and OBEY all By-Laws, Rules and Regulations of this Association AT ALL TIMES. The Management reserves the right to expel from the grounds or refuse admission to anyone not conforming to these rules and regulations.

Newland, Chautauqua manager, agree to payment of 10% rental fee to Association, and submit complete information about prospective renters to Board through Mr. Newland. Non-owners wishing to rent a cottage should contact Mr. Newland and submit full information to him for Board consideration.

What Chautauqua Offers

Religious Program

For the first time in Chautauqua's 73 years, we are privileged to have as Resident Minister a product of Chautauqua, a young man who set the pattern for his life largely because of his experiences at Chautauqua: Ronnie Rain. Ronnie, now a student at Millikin University, has spent all of his summers at Chautauqua. His fine character and qualities of leadership long have been recognized by Chautauquans. We are all proud that Ronnie will be spokesman for the religious life of our community and active in the guidance of youth activities this season.

RONNIE RAIN

In his work he will be associated with Miss Claudia Smith, who will direct the choirs, serve as pianist for the church and chapel services and as accompanist for the "community sings" at movies and other scheduled events.

Miss Smith is a June graduate of Jerseyville Community High School. For four years she has been organist at the First Methodist Church in Jerseyville and has assisted the Junior Choir director. In school she has been active in all phases of the music program, has played in the high school band and has served as head Majorette of that organization. She has appeared in Chautauqua with the VFW Corvet Drum and Bugle Corps and has won numerous honors in music.

Sunday Morning Church

A distinguished group of guest ministers will fill the pulpit at Sunday morning church services, leading off with Bishop Eugene M. Frank, Bishop of the Methodist Church in Missouri, who will preach the service on Opening Sunday, June 15.

Bishop Frank will be followed by Paul H. Frankenfeld, who returns for his annual visit to Chautauqua on June 22. Following that, three popular ministers will follow on successive Sundays: Rev. Rollyn K. Moseson, Richmond Heights Presbyterian, Dr. Roland E. Turnbull, former president of Shurtleff College, and Dr. Wesley H. Hager, Grace Methodist, St. Louis.

On July 20, 27 and August 3, we will be privileged to hear Richard R. Broholm, Paptist University Pastor, University of Wisconsin, Rev. Herman M. Gross, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Presbytery of St. Louis, and Professor Ernest F. Nolte of Eden Theological Seminary.

Following the success of 1957's Youth Sunday, August 10 this season will be devoted to Youth Sunday and our own Dr. Omer Floyd Whitlock of Signal Hill Methodist will preach August 17.

In the pulpit on the last two Sundays will be two of the popular Chautauqua "veterans" - William R. Kimbrough of Elm Street Presbyterian in Alton on August 24 and Dr. Marion F. Stuart, Tyler Place Presbyterian, St. Louis, on the final Sunday, August 31.

Church School

Each Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. Church School is held in the auditorium under the supervision of Mr. Joseph L. Rain and Mrs. Milton Grimm. A staff of capable teachers provides excellent training for all age groups. Accredited attendance cards are given those who attend. Special recognition is given those with a perfect attendance record throughout the season.

Thursday Chapel

Ronnie Rain will be in charge of the Thursday night devotional services at 7:30 in the chapel. Miss Smith will provide special music. There will be guest speakers and special programs on some of the Thursday nights.

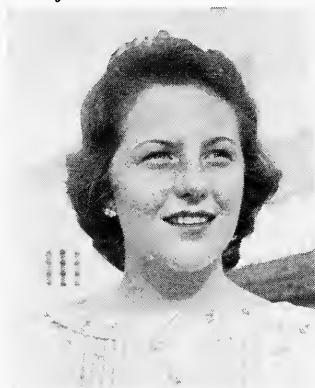

MISS CLAUDIA SMITH
Director of Music

Recreational Program

The Recreational program at Chautauqua for the coming season promises to be one of the most active in many years. For the children, Play School has been extended to include an afternoon session. The new swimming pool, which will be open every afternoon and two evenings per week, will provide plenty of recreational opportunities for young and old . . . and an ambitious series of tournaments in a wide variety of sports will give everybody an opportunity for recreation and competition. The following pages highlight what's to come. Refer to Daily Program of Events for details of tournaments.

Play School

MISS DIANE BERTHOUX
... Play School Director

The L.C.I.A. has taken over operation of the Play School and has engaged Miss Diane Berthoux of Jerseyville as Play School Director. Miss Berthoux has had much experience that will be helpful to her in conducting Play School. She has served as a teacher in the Primary Department of a Sunday School, has conducted her own dancing class, and last year was one of the winners in a Russ David television program.

Miss Carole Rogers, who has spent all of her summers at Chautauqua and is thoroughly familiar with Play School work, will assist Miss Berthoux at the morning session.

Hours of the Play School will be from 10 to 12 in the morning and 1:30 to 3:00 in the afternoon, Monday through Friday.

MISS CAROLE ROGERS
... Play School Assistant

Athletics

As always, the athletic program this summer will play a big part in the life of Chautauqua residents and vacationers.

Under the leadership of Ken Schulenburg, a busy schedule of athletic activities and tournaments has been planned. As usual, except for swimming, there is no charge for any athletic activity at Chautauqua.

Not only does Chautauqua attempt to develop athletic skills; it places great emphasis on sportsmanship.

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARDS

More coveted than the championship in any tournament are the annual Sportsmanship Awards. They will be made on Saturday evening, August 30, to the boy and girl between the ages of 10 and 15 inclusive, who, in the opinion of the judges, have shown the most sportsmanlike conduct during the season. The award is based on participation, mental attitude, courtesy, friendliness and character. The awards will be made by the president of the Association.

ROQUE

Few can remember when roque was not played at Chautauqua. Roque courts have been maintained for nearly a half century and the popularity of the game has endured through the years although, like most other sports, its popularity has varied from time to time. This year, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Huss, tournaments for young and old are being planned. They also intend to stage one tourney for mixed partners. So, all ages at Chautauqua should plan to participate in activities at the Roque court. Championship Day will be August 23.

BASEBALL

Between over-run grounds during the construction of the swimming pool in 1956 and a broken water main causing a flood in the playing field in 1957, baseball has had two discouraging seasons - - but Chautauqua is more fortunate than a lot of other communities: the franchise hasn't been sold to another city! The players are just two years older and in addition we have a new group coming on. So look for plenty of activity at the baseball diamond this season. Ronnie Rain is planning to promote special progressive events for awards based on a point system. Participation in baseball will count toward these awards.

TENNIS

Dr. Arthur Brewer will be in charge of tennis activities during the season and is making plans for greater participation by Chautauquans in this sport during 1958.

Chautauqua has had a long history as a tennis center and has produced some excellent players. It is hoped that many of the younger people will take advantage of the opportunity to improve their tennis skills during the season.

The tournament will be held on August 16.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Again Lynn Schlansker will be in charge of shuffleboard activities. The tournament is planned for July 19. Here is a game that men, women, boys and girls of all ages can play and enjoy. Be sure to register for the tournament.

BADMINTON

The badminton tournament is scheduled for August 2 with Joe Smith in charge. The age range for playing badminton is wide and while it is a fast game for "old folks" it gives the hardy a lot of exercise in a short time - - and it can be played by boys and girls.

BOWLING ON THE GREEN

A game that is gaining popularity with each new season is Bowling on the Green. Again this year Mel Norris will be in charge of this sport. Both men and women have found Bowling on the Green a recreation and exercise that is satisfying to them - - and the good fellowship that prevails at the courts makes the game more attractive. If you are a newcomer to the game, don't be shy; there are lots of experienced people to show you the fine points! Championship Day is August 23 for this sport.

HORSESHOES

For more than half a century, horseshoes have been a part of Chautauqua, and the fame of the game has been exceeded only by the fame of some of the players who have gone before. Today

Chautauqua (and maybe the whole world) is badly in need of better horseshoe pitchers and the special brand of relaxation that only horseshoe pitching provides. The courts are there. The shoes are there. They need only your energy. There will be a tournament on July 12 - - so start practicing early.

ARCHERY

Dr. Sy Hotze again has agreed to sponsor archery at Chautauqua. The popularity of this sport last season augurs well for a busy 1958 season for the bow and arrow set. As soon as you reach Chautauqua, report to Dr. Hotze and get lined up to learn the fine points of archery and to engage in the competition that will be scheduled.

GOLF

While Chautauqua has no golf course of its own, this year through the courtesy of Westlake Country Club at Jerseyville, Chautauquans will be permitted use of the Westlake course by the payment of nominal greens fees of $1.00 on weekdays and $1.50 on Saturday and Sunday. It takes less time to get to Westlake Country Club from Chautauqua than most men spend getting from the office to their own country club, and you'll find the course sporty and challenging. There is a snack bar at the club house. Ladies day is Tuesday.

BOATING

One of the great advantages of Chautauqua is its location in a cool valley, but next to its attractiveness in that respect is the fact that it is situated on Alton Lake, one of the fastest-growing boating regions in the nation. In recent years many Chautauquans have acquired boats, and water skiing, fishing, and all forms of water sports are increasing in popularity each year. Docks at Chautauqua are maintained by the Chautauqua Yacht Club, a separate corporation whose membership

All Playing Courts Are Closed
On Sunday Until After Church Services

is made up of boating enthusiasts at Chautauqua. In addition to the thrill of the water, the view of the bluffs on the Illinois side of Lake Alton is among the most beautiful sights in the Midwest.

SWIMMING

Chautauqua's new swimming pool, which was initiated last season, will be operating full force during the 1958 season. New bath house facilities have been completed. The pool, with its elaborate filtering system, meets the exacting requirements of the Illinois Code. Frank Woodrow will serve as Pool Manager and Ronnie Rain will be the life guard.

Special swimming events - - including awards for swimming achievements - - will highlight the swimming season's activity.

The pool will be open every day from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 6:30 to 8:00 o'clock on Tuesday and Sunday evenings.

Entertainment Program

What is Chautauqua like?

How often have you had people ask you that question? And you find it difficult to explain, don't you? The reason is that you don't know where to begin. It's like trying to explain a way of life.

A stranger driving through the grounds for the first time might describe Chautauqua as a rather quaint little community nestling in the valley between high, green hills, dense with tall trees, ferns and wildflowers. Another looking more closely, might see the never failing spring bursting out at the foot of tall cliffs, the winding creek criss-crossing the roadway from the upper reaches of the grounds on its way to the mighty Mississippi River that flows by Chautauqua. Still another might describe Chautauqua as a cluster of some 100 summer homes, called cottages because they are too refined in their structure and furnishings to be called cabins and too informal in nature to be called houses.

But any descriptions such as these would fail to tell the full meaning just as would any which described Chautauqua as a recreational center, just because a casual observer noticed participants enjoying a half dozen different kinds of sports at any given time.

Chautauqua isn't just a summer resort, a recreational center, a place to escape from heat or tension. Chautauqua is a place where Christian-centered families come together from various communities to work together to build a purposeful program of entertainment, relaxation, education, inspiration and spiritual growth. Some come for a few days, a weekend, a fortnight or a month. Others come for the whole season, and return out-of-season to refresh themselves with pleasant memories of seasons gone by.

You can't judge Chautauqua accurately by looking at it from the outside. Nor can you get the most from it observing it in action. You need to become a part of it, and let Chautauqua become a part of you, if you would know the real Chautauqua.

To those who believe in the Christian principles and Christian faith on which Chautauqua was founded and who attempt to uphold the standards which have enabled Chautauqua to endure for 73 years, New Piasa Chautauqua extends a sincere invitation, knowing that Chautauqua life will mean much to you and that you, like all others now enjoying it, will mean much to Chautauqua.

For a glimpse of the 1958 Season refer to the schedule of daily events on the following pages.

Daily Program of Events

NOTE: The events shown on this and following pages are by no means all of the organized activities that will be taking place throughout the season. They are merely some of the major events. On the following pages the schedule of daily events is presented with a page per week so that you can see at a glance the entire week ahead. Services

The Springs Hotel

The Springs Hotel, operated by the LCIA, again will be managed by Mrs. Bessie Hill, whose successful management in 1956 and 1957 has made the hotel a popular spot. Her assistant is Miss Joanne Haney.

The historic hotel has been renovated for the new season and is ready to welcome guests for a day, week, month, or the entire season. For reservations, or to reach a guest at the hotel, call Alton, Illinois, 2-2022.

Kentucky Home

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Burnett again will operate Kentucky Home, serving breakfast, luncheon and dinner daily. They will cater to reservation business for special parties and banquets.

As usual, rooms at Kentucky Home will be available to guests by the day, week, or month.

For reservations for meals or rooms, call Alton 2-8950. If no answer call Alton 5-9657.

Food Shop

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brainerd are in charge of the food shop. Here you will find a complete stock of groceries, including fresh and frozen meats and vegetables. The store also stocks miscellaneous household items. The store is open every day. Because of the useful service which the store provides Chautauquans are urged to patronize the store for grocery needs.

Cafeteria and Station Stand

Mr. and Mrs. Russell (Whitey) Patterson will have charge of both the cafeteria and the station stand. For ten years the Pattersons operated the food concession at Shurtleff College and are well-known for the quality of the food they serve.

At the cafeteria they will feature short orders, sandwiches, salads and home-made pastry. They will serve steak and chicken dinners on reservation.

As before, the station stand will serve cold drinks and ice cream and will stock cigarettes, candy, gum, etc.

The Pattersons also will make available health and beauty aids.

News Stand and Souvenir Shop

Steve Voss again will be operating the news stand and souvenir shop at the entrance to the boardwalk. In the two previous years

Steve has built this into an attractive shopping center for postcards, souvenirs, newspapers and camera supplies.

Gift Shop

Mrs. Harold King will operate the Chautauqua Gift Shop as she has for a number of seasons. Her shop includes the latest gift items and a wide assortment of party favours, greeting cards, tallies, placecards and the like. As in past years, she will take orders for Christmas cards from sample lines on display in the Gift Shop.

Popcorn Stand

Feminine charm has come to the popcorn concession. Miss Mary Meisel will be in charge of the popcorn stand, relocated in a new spot at the rear of the auditorium where fresh, hot buttered popcorn will be dispensed as an additional feature to make each movie more enjoyable. See Mary Meisel, Piasa's popcorn queen of 1958, for all your popcorn needs.

The Administration Office

Mr. J. W. Newland will have charge of the office and grounds. Season tickets may be purchased from Mr. Newland or the Gateman and should be registered at the Administration Office.

Cottage Owners are required to secure approval of the Cottage Committee through Mr. Newland before renting cottages and also pay the Association cottage rental fee of 10%. On request of owners, Mr. Newland will show cottages to prospective renters.

Daily events will be posted on Bulletin Board. Special announcements will be made at Auditorium. Submit requests to Mr. Newland.

Organizations

Ladies Civic Improvement Association

During its more than 40 years the Ladies Civic Improvement Association has added to its duties and its stature until today a very great part of the success of Chautauqua is due directly to the work of the L.C.I.A. This organization not only responds whenever called upon but very often volunteers to undertake ambitious projects for the betterment of Chautauqua, far beyond the call of duty.

In preparation for the coming season, L.C.I.A. has underwritten the cost of the painting of the Riverfront Pavilion and the plantings around the swimming pool and at the entrance to the grounds. All of this is in addition to its customary sponsorship of Children's Day, Girls' Club, Play School, card parties and the financial responsibility for operation and maintenance of the Springs Hotel, Station Stand, Riverview Lookout and the Chapel.

Chautauqua Men's Club

All Chautauqua men are urged to become members of Chautauqua Men's Club. Dr. Jack Hormell is president, Lynn Schlansker is vice president, and in keeping with tradition, is in charge of the Fourth of July activities. The entire Fourth of July celebration at Chautauqua, including the barbecue supper and picnic, is under the sponsorship of the Men's Club. Dr. Sy Hotze is in charge of the games and other entertainment features of the day's activities.

Chautauqua depends on the Men's Club for many worthwhile projects. There are no dues. Funds are raised strictly on a "pass the hat" basis.

Annual dinner and election of officers will be held Sunday, August 10.

Under the leadership of Steve Voss, the Boys' Club is planning one of its most active seasons. It plans to assist the Men's Club in the Fourth of July picnic, re-finish the chapel furniture, conduct a car wash, build the booths for Children's Day and sponsor a Boys' Club Dance.

Through the years the Boys' Club has helped Chautauqua in many ways and is always ready to assist in any worthwhile activity. All boys from junior high school through college age are urged to contact an officer or member about joining the club.

Chautauqua Players

Chautauqua Players was founded two years ago and has produced in the 1956 and 1957 seasons highly successful theatrical performances. The purpose of this organization is recreational rather than professional. Its membership, with no dues, includes all Chautauquans who are interested. Whatever money is accumulated from proceeds of its productions goes to improve the auditorium, the stage, and to finance further productions.

On August 23 the Chautauqua Players will present "Tish", Mary Robert Rinehart's most popular stories made into a gay and exciting comedy in three acts, by Alice Chadwicke. The play is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French.
